ONLY VICTORIA CROSS GIVEN NON-BRITON IS FOR AMERICAN

King George Thanks Harding For Medal Of Honor Sent By Pershing

ADDS GOOD WISH

Hopes For Full Success Of The Conference In Washington

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 18.—The King has despatched a message to President Harding expressing his appreciation of the gift of the medal of honor laid on the tomb of the British Unknown Warrior, as a gesture of the friendly sympathy and goodwill which we would never forget. He pointed out that the Victoria Cross, which Britain was sending to America, had never before been bestowed on a subject of another race.

His Majesty added his heartfelt good wishes for the sterling success of the Washington Conference, in which the Ministers of both countries would do all that practical statesmanship could achieve to perpetuate that comradeship of the war in the maintenance of peace.

London, Oct. 17.—General Pershing received an enthusiastic welcome in London today when he laid the Congressional Medal on the tomb of the Unknown Warrior in Westminster Abbey and placed a magnificent wreath on the cenotaph.

Large crowds heartily cheered General Pershing and Colonel Harvey, the United States Ambassador, as they drove in open carriages from the American Embassy to the Abbey, escorted by mounted police. Five hundred American troops from the Rhine, wearing steel helmets and carrying rifles, and fifty sailors from the American warship, Olympia, which will convey the remains of the American Unknown Warrior from France to America, were drawn up outside the Abbey, together with detachments of the Guards, bluejackets, marines and of the Air Force.

The Duke of Connaught, representing the King, the Prime Minister, Mr. Winston Churchill, Air-Marshal Sir H. M. Trenchard, Lord Lee, Sir L. Worthington Evans, Earl Haig, Viscount French, Viscount Allenby, Sir William Robertson, Sir Henry Wilson, the Earl of Cavan and the High Commissioners and Agents-General for the Dominions were amongst the distinguished personages at the Abbey.

AMERICA'S HIGHEST HONOR

Colonel Harvey, in the course of his speech, pointed out that the medal was the highest military honor that could be bestowed by the government of the United States and comprised a message of fraternity from Americans to the people of the British Empire.

General Pershing laying the Medal on the tomb, in commemoration of British sacrifices and "as a slight token of our gratitude and affection for Britain," said:

"Let us profit by this occasion and under its inspiration pledge anew our trust in God that He may guide our faltering footsteps into the paths of permanent peace. Let us resolve together in friendship and confidence to maintain towards all peoples that Christian spirit that underlies the character of both nations."

NATIONS HAVE SAME AIMS

Mr. Lloyd George, replying, emphasised the Imperial significance of the tribute to the representative of nearly a million British dead. He said that America's homage would be a perpetual reminder that the fundamental aims of the two democracies were the same and a solemn pledge that the two mighty peoples who were comrades in the Great War had resolved to remain comrades to guarantee a great peace.

There has been much discussion as to what honor the British Government will bestow on the American Warrior in return for the Congressional Medal. Reuter's Agency learns that it will be the Victoria Cross.

DECORATE AMERICAN HERO

London, Oct. 17.—At a banquet in honor of General Pershing this evening Sir L. Worthington Evans at the conclusion of an eulogistic address emphasising the indestructibility of Anglo-American friendship, announced the King's intention of conferring the Victoria Cross on America's Unknown Warrior.

He Hoped that the Earl of Cavan, head of the British Military Mission to the Washington Conference, would be able to present the Cross on behalf of His Majesty.

WORLD TO HEAR ABOUT SHANGHAI MOTOR CAR SHOW

Announcement was made at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Automobile Show at the Palace hotel last evening that all of the seventy-six available exhibition spaces in the big building under construction at Verdun Gardens had been disposed of, and that additional space tentatively provided by the building committee had been spoken for. This means that the show is to have the fullest possible support from the trade in Shanghai, and is further evidence that the forthcoming exhibition will be the outstanding event of the autumn in this part of China.

Last night's meeting was presided over by Mr. C. R. Burkill, the new chairman. In assuming the chair, he made a brief address in which he predicted the Shanghai show would be successful beyond all expectations. He then outlined a plan for getting worldwide publicity for the Shanghai show, and for Shanghai. A booklet describing the Shanghai show in detail, and telling facts of interest concerning motoring in China will be sent to trade journals, newspapers and motor car manufacturers to arouse their interest in Shanghai and China.

Chairman White, of the building committee, announced that with fair weather the roof of the main exhibition building would be on in two weeks. All of the construction work is to be finished early in November, allowing three weeks for decorations and the installation of exhibits.

Last week's meeting was well attended. Those present, in addition to the Chairman, being Messrs. F. P. Bills, of Hudford Motors, C. W. Chandler, of the Dunlop Rubber Co., Leon Friedman, of China Motors, Ltd., A. H. Hallam, of the Vacuum Oil Co., F. Wells Henderson, of Inniss and Riddle, H. S. Honigsberg, Joseph J. Keegan, S. C. Lee, of Lee and Lee Garage, Ph. Osterberger, of the French Garage, R. R. Roxburgh, of John I. Thornycroft and Co., Ltd., E. J. Surman, of Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., C. J. White, of the Central Garage, George Wilson, of the Asiatic Petroleum Co., Ltd., P. W. Giovannini, of H. S. Honigsberg and Co., Inc., and Arthur West, manager of the show.

Russia-Wide Revolution To Wipe Out Bolshevism Is Ataman Semenov's Dream

Cossack Chief Expects To Leave Here Soon For Conclaves In Europe And Return To Siberia In Spring

Ataman Semenov will leave Shanghai and the Far East within the next few days, but not for good. He will return East in the Spring of 1922, and, if all goes well, he will return as the Far Eastern or Siberian head of a giant anti-Bolshevistic revolution that is to start up simultaneously over all of Russia from Riga to Vladivostok, and take the country back again to the basis of 1917, when the peasants first gained their freedom from the Czarist regime and began to grope for ways and means and methods of establishing a democracy suited to the peculiarities of their country.

The Revolution of the Spring of 1922 is to mark the abolition of Communism and Bolshevism in Russia; it is to mark the building up of a sensible people's government that may be recognised and extended the open hand of fellowship by the nations of the world.

These facts and plans and dreams were gathered yesterday in an interview with Ataman Semenov's agent, representative and English mouth-piece—Mr. K. W. Luchich, formerly Russian Consular Judge at Shanghai.

DENIES HE'S 'FINISHED'

No definite statements were obtainable as to the exact inmediate plans of Ataman Semenov yesterday, but the statement was made and reiterated often that Semenov and his activities in Siberian affairs are not "finished" as has been supposed locally since the Ataman left his Cossack army at Grodekevo. He will continue his fight against Bolshevism, it was declared, and the end is predicted for the summer of next year.

While Semenov was at Grodekevo a few months ago, according to Mr. Luchich, he was formally elected by the combined Cossack forces there as their Ataman or Head Man, or chief. He had the votes of tribes from the Trans-Baikal, the Yenesei, Pri-Amur, the Urals, Orenburg and other districts; even from the mixed brigade of General Nachaieff, one of Kappel's organisations.

Attempts were made at that time to equip the Grodekevo army and to take the field again against the Chita Reds, but the poverty of the leaders, the lack of arms and ammunition and food prevented. This, Mr Luchich insisted, was the only reason an attempt was made to have the Japanese command at Vladivostok release the immense stores of arms and ammunition held under their guard since the several disarmaments of Russian armies of different previous governments; but the Japanese refused.

BIDDEN TO CONCLAVE

About that time, when Semenov and his followers saw that a military move was impossible, invitations were received from Atamans of Southern Russia, refugees in Europe with the remnants of General Wrangel's army, for Semenov to attend conferences in Belgrade Paris and elsewhere of all anti-Bolshevistic forces, with the idea of organising and formulating a Russia-wide revolution against the Reds. It was then that Semenov decided to leave his army and Siberia. But his army, he says, will await his return.

Mr. Luchich, expressed the opinion that Ataman Semenov may obtain vises as needed. The question of his itinerary was the chief problem to decide what consular assistance would be necessary.

SAYS VISAS ARE PROMISED

"The Ataman does not wish to go too far from Russia," he said. "He now has promises of vises, but it will be necessary to determine upon an itinerary before he may know just what kind of vises to ask for."

Concerning the possibility of the Consular Body at Shanghai holding Semenov's departure in contempt of court, because of possible action in the International Mixed Court on the complaint in which the Ataman is charged by Mrs. Alexandra Vladimirovna Nahaboff with cruel, barbarous and inhuman treatment of herself, her husband and her children, and in which she asks Taels 500,000 damages, Mr. Luchich expressed the opinion that the Consular Body, to which the question of jurisdiction was referred, would never hold Semenov for trial in a foreign court for crimes alleged to have been committed by representatives of a foreign government.

"It would establish an impossible precedent" he said.

As to Mr. Nahaboff's charges, Mr. Luchich repeated and reiterated Ataman Semenov's formal statement published in THE CHINA PRESS last week. The whole story, he said, was not probable, or, even if true in its principal points, the Ataman had and has no knowledge of it.

LOOK TO PACIFIC CONFAB

The Washington Conference Mr. Luchich expects, and the opinion also is held by Semenov, will give much time to the affairs of Siberia and of Russia. A definite decision as to when and how Japan will evacuate Siberia is the greatest good hoped for from Washington.

"The question," he said, "will be decided—it must be."

America, during the time of Russia's fall to Bolshevism, Mr. Luchich said, may be depended upon to maintain and protect Russian interests.

"The Russian and the Siberian question," he said, "are not merely local. They are so widely international as to force themselves for consideration.

"The item of trade alone," he continued, "will force a change in the situation. You are trying now with your contracts with the Soviet, but those are all impossible to carry out."

The Washington conference, or the Revolution of the Spring of 1922, or both are depended upon to bring about the necessary change to the face of the Russian situation.

No Chance Of War Even Conference Should Fail

LONDON, October 17.—The Central News says that the Japanese Embassy in Rome has published a Note declaring that the eventuality of war between Japan and America, if the Washington Conference should prove unsuccessful, is inconceivable.

Further Hearing In Rent Dispute

There was a further hearing in the British Supreme Court yesterday of the dispute wherein the Chinese lessor of premises at 191 Avenue Joffre is suing Mr. J. T. Hammond, who in turn is suing the sub-lessee, Mr. E. Welmann. The case is being heard by Judge Peter Grain and counsel appearing are Mr. A. Y. Ping for the lessor and Mr. P. W. Goldring for Mr. Welmann, while Mr. Hammond is conducting his own case.

The lessor's claim is for Tls. 500 alleged to be rent due and for Tls. 1,882.48 alleged due as damages suffered through failure of the defendant to fulfil a covenant regarding the upkeep of repairs.

Mr. Hammond yesterday called withnesses in an effort to show the house to be of faulty construction and the case was again adjourned, until today.

TWO MILLION RAILWAYMEN PLAN STRIKE OCTOBER 30

All American Railways To Be Tied Up In Effort To Uphold Wages

MEN OBDURATE

Bankruptcy Staring Us In Face Say Heads Of Big Systems

U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Harding has assumed active leadership of the Government in its efforts to settle the differences between the railroads and their employes.

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Oct. 16.—It is anticipated that, if the threatened railway strike comes about over 500,000 men will cease work on October 30 and 2,000,000 will be out on November 2. The men were already opposed to the 12 percent reduction in wages ordered by the Labor Board and the subsequent notice of further cuts added fuel to the flame.

The President of the Chicago Great Western Railway predicts that the railways will be able to carry on owing to the absence of public sympathy with the railwaymen.

The Chicago Tribune explaining that the public have had to submit to a reduction of their incomes, does not see why the railwaymen's wages should be maintained at the war level.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The Labor Board proposes in order to avert the railway strike a reduction in freight rates, equivalent to the reduction in wages recommended in July, and also the withdrawal by the railways and operatives of further reductions and the strike order, respectively, pending action by the Board.

PROPOSALS NOT FEASIBLE

Cleveland, Oct. 17.—The President of the Locomotive Engineers' Union declared that the Labor Board's proposals were not feasible.

Meanwhile the authorities are making every preparation to maintain food supplies, and for the conveyance of mails. Fifty-seven thousand motor-lorries will be available to feed New York.

There are cold storage supplies sufficient for three weeks. The fuel problem is very grave but coal merchants declare that they will be able to meet the situation.

CAN'T CONCEIVE STRIKE

(U.S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Eugene, Ore, Oct. 17.—Mr. William Sproul, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad said: "I can't conceive the men striking. If they strike they will practically be acting against the Government of the United States as the Labor Board on railroads has fixed wages."

BRITISH vs. U.S. RYS

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The American railway system is ten times larger than the British system which had one of the latest great railroad strikes.

Two years ago the American railroads employed 1,977,626 and had a mileage of 233,991. Railroad officials generally express disbelief that the tie-up will be complete.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Final arrangements have been made for the general railroad strike. The intended tie-up of the nation's transportation system through a walkout of two million employes is rapidly nearing completion. Tonight brought two important changes into the original plans. It was decided not to include the Pennsylvania and Erie railroads in the first walkout which was scheduled for the morning of October 30. The San Diego and Arizona Railroads have been added to the first group, in which the unions have divided the roads for strike purposes, and it was decided to order the three succeeding groups out at forty-eight hour intervals instead of twenty four. The strike is to be in full effect on November 5 at midnight. The hub of the situation was transferred tonight to Cleveland, where the leaders of the organisations will meet on Tuesday to complete the grouping of the railroads and settle the final details.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—The Railroad executives today announced

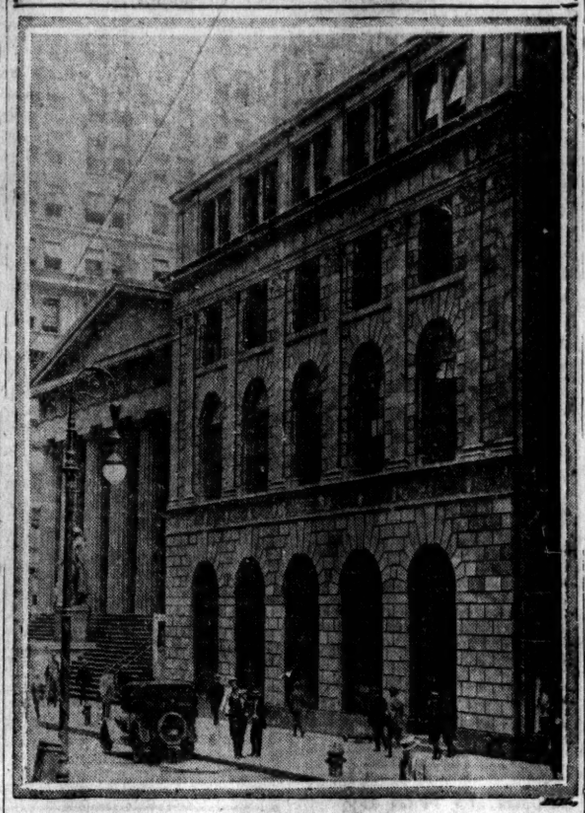
One-Fifth Of World's Gold Supply In One New York Building



THIS building is the United States Assay Office, and there are approximately 250 tons of pure gold piled in bars and ranged in sacks of coin in the vaults. The gold in this one Federal building is about one-fifth of the world's supply of the precious metal and is by far the greatest amount of gold ever gathered in one place or one city.

The flood of yellow metal that has gushed into the building since the war has come from every corner of the earth, and every week this hoard of gold is increased by many millions. Almost every transatlantic liner brings more of it, and no one knows when the flood will recede.

All foreign coins received are melted into bars, and these bars are numbered, tagged and tabulated and ready for shipment should the call come.

It is estimated that the United States has one-fourth of all the gold in the world, there being about a half billion in the Denver and San Francisco mints, the Treasury and the various banks of the country.

American School Campaign Workers Expect To Pass Tls. 100,000 Mark Today

At the close of the second day of the campaign to raise Tls. 150,000 to begin the erection of a new American School it was announced last night that subscriptions amounting to Tls. 65,936 had been made to the fund and an affort is to be made today by the workers directing the campaign to drive the total to the Tls. 100,000 mark.

Enthusiastic reports were presented by team captains yesterday at a tiffin meeting at the Navy Y. M. C. A. which was attended by the entire student body of the High School. In the course of the tiffin the students sang songs and cheered and an address was given by Mr. E. S. Cunningham in which he called upon all Americans to aid in the campaign as a patriotic duty.

TREASURE HUNT

The 'treasure hunt' for the $100 donated by THE EVENING STAR will come to a close tomorrow afternoon on the tract of land that has been selected as the site of the American School. This was announced by Principal Willard W. Bartlett who said the pupils of the school will be present and at the same time extended an invitation to Americans of the cummunity to be there.

A feature of the tiffin meeting was the auctioning of a Liberty bond by Consul-General Cunningham. The bond was sent to Shanghai by an American sailor serving aboard the U. S. S. Gunboat Elcano who said he desired to contribute half its value to the school fund. The bond was auctioned to Dr. Anne Walter Fearn for Tls. 650 and half the value of the bond Gold $50 to be sent to the sailor was donated by Mr. A. B. Rosenfeld.

MR. CUNNINGHAM'S ADDRESS

In the course of the address he gave, Mr. Cunningham praised the spirit of the workers in the campaign. His address was as follows:

"You are working together as Americans to advance American interests," the Consul-General said. "America has always stood in the forefront for education, the United States is noted for its schools and school system, our philanthropists have seen that American educational facilities have reached other lands.

"It is fitting that we in China should see to it that our American children will have the facilities available to them in the homeland. It is proper that Americans, representing the largest national group among foreigners with the exception of two, should have proper facilities and equipment for educating American children."

Mr. Cunningham expressed the appreciation of the American community to the schools of other nations which have so long allowed American children to attend and pointing to the success of these institutions, urged that Americans build a school of which they will be proud.

Cheers and songs by the students of the school who were present "to see how a campaign was conducted" enlivened the tiffin. The speakers and those who offered bids for the Liberty Bond were heartily cheered.

FIGURES GIVEN

The following figures show the standing of the teams in attendance at the daily tiffins. The names of the team leaders are given:

1. The treasure is hidden in a Chinese garden.
2. It is hidden not more than a quarter of a mile from the center of the American School property.
3. The treasure is contained in an aluminum drinking cup wrapped in paper.

Go to it!

The check for $100, presented by THE EVENING STAR, has been buried by Principal W. W. Barlett of the American School. You don't have to be a human divining rod to find it; simply follow directions.

ULSTER WILL REORGANISE; SAYS SOUTH IS DRILLING

Plans Volunteer Force In Lieu Of "Inactive British Govt."

HANG TOGETHER

Sir James Craig Sure Six Ulster Counties Will Keep The Faith

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 18.—It is announced from Belfast that it has been decided to reorganise the Ulster Volunteer Force in consequence of "the inactivity of the British Government in coping with Sinn Fein, which has established camps within the Unionist quarters and is openly drilling with rifles and machine-guns."

Sir James Craig, in the course of a spirited reply to Sinn Fein criticisms, in a recent speech, declared that six Ulster counties would hang together and not allow any tampering with them. He strenuously countered the idea that Ulster was a bargaining factor in the present situation. Ulster wanted nothing except to be left alone to work out its own destiny.

CONFER TWO HOURS

London, Oct. 17.—The Irish Conference was resumed this afternoon. The crowd in Whitehall were chiefly interested in the American wreaths on the Cenotaph but a small gathering at the bottom of Downing Street cheered the Sinn Feiners on their arrival.

At the termination of the conference Lieut-Commander Erskine Childers told an interviewer that no date had been fixed for the return of the delegates to Downing Street.

The Official Communique states that the Conference lasted for two hours and was then adjourned. Reuter's Agency learns that the failure to fix the date of resumption is due to the uncertainty of Mr. Lloyd George's parliamentary engagements.

Rockefeller To Aid Medical Science In The Philippines

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Manila, Oct. 8.—The city of Manila is one of the cleanest and busiest in the Far East, and compares favorably with many American cities, according to Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who paid a hasty visit to the principal points of interest during his recent trip through the Far East.

Mr. Rockefeller was especially interested in the Philippine Government Hospital and in the Bureau of Science. According to Bureau of Science officials, it is virtually settled that the Rockefeller Foundation will extend its activities to the Philippines, although the form of relief has not yet been decided upon.

Dr. Victor G. Heiser of the Foundation is studying three plans suggested by the Bureau. One of these is to eradicate the hookworm disease, while the others include a plan for biological research.

American Organisation And Others To Join In Investigation

A large attendance was present at the second meeting of the American Woman's Club for the fall term, held yesterday at the Carlton Cafe.

Mrs. Coleman of Tokio and Dr. Louise Lawrence of Boston briefly greeted the club in the names of their own organisations. The program, which was under the auspices of the Social Service Department, consisted of an address by Miss Agatha Harrison of the Y. W. C. A. on the subject of ameliorating factory conditions in China. Committees appointed by the American Woman's Club, the British Women's Association, and the Shanghai Women's Club, a Chinese organisation, will meet in the near future to investigate the factory problem and to suggest means of improving conditions.

Suggestions that the club form gardening and dramatic departments were offered but not acted upon. Among the announcements was the setting of November thirteenth as the date of the next bridge and mah-jongg party to be given by the Social Department.

CHITA'S MISSION STARTS ON TRADE TRIP TO AMERICA

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct. 15.—Messrs. B. Skvirsky and Karavaieff, advance representatives of the Far Eastern Republic's unofficial trade mission to the United States, leave Chita this evening en route for Peking, according to official advices received here today. Mr. Skvirsky was at one time Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs under the Antonoff Government at Vladivostok and later held the same post under the Chita Government. Mr. Karavaieff has been an official in the Amur Provincial Government.

The two Chita delegates to the United States are due to reach Pekieng on or about October 20 and will remain here for several days in order to obtain the necessary visas, engage passage to America and get in touch with the local mission of the Far Eastern Republic.

They will be followed to America at a somewhat later date by the balance of the mission, including the chief delegate, who has not yet been appointed, and various trade and technical experts and secretaries. In connection with the chief delegate of the mission to America it is understood here that the Far Eastern Republic has in mind the appointment of one of its prominent and influential officials.

The Far Eastern Republic expects great results from its trade mission to America, according to Mr. Yourin, Minister for Foreign Affairs of Chita, who recently said that he hoped for an ultimate trade agreement with the United States leading to closer commercial relation between the two countries, the investment of American capital in Siberian enterprises and, later, America's official recognition of his Government.

HAVE OVER THIRD OF FIGURE SET IN Y.W.C.A. DRIVE

Team Leaders Report More Than $5,000 Raised

The second rally of the finance campaign team leaders was held in the local Young Women's Christian Association rooms, 11A Quinsan Road yesterday. This marked the first week of the campaign which will extend to October 26. Over $5,000 was reported by the leaders, which is over one-third of the budget set for the defraying necessary expenses of the Shanghai local and national Young Women's Christian Association, partial support of the Y.W.C.A. National Training School, and of the Association's interests on the Council of Public Health.

In accordance with the spirit which the late Miss Grace L. Coppock introduced into the Association work in China the finance campaign has continued this week with added impetus and zeal inspired by the example of Miss Coppock's work for the Chinese girls and women. The business firms, both Chinese and foreign number among the staunch supporters and subscribers in the campaign. Most of these firms are making firm contributions and also individual members of the firms are contributing.

The following is the team leaders' report: Dr. Phoebe Stone, $335; Mrs. Y. C. Tong, $278; Madame Nyien, $267; Madame Wu T. Faung, $102; Madame Nieh, $93; Mrs. Lacy, $661; Business Women, $422; Mrs. MacLachlin, $370; Mrs. Welch, $902; Mrs. Atkinson, $1,310; Miss T. T. Woo, $1,006; Miss Me Ling Song, $231; Mrs. Z. Y. RELIEF BODIES PLAN TO TAKE UP FAMINE PROBLEM

Representatives Of Eleven Organisations Meet To Discuss Action

At the invitation of some of the members of the Chinese Foreign Famine Relief Committee, eleven Chinese Relief Organisations met yesterday at Zung Tsi Tang to discuss and formulate ways and means to relieve the distress of flood sufferers in Anhwei, Kiangsu, Chekiang, Shantung and Hupeh.

According to the report of Mr. H. S. Ferguson, of the China Inland Mission, the district around Cheng-Yang-Kwan, Ying-Shan-Hsien, and the district extending from these centers as far as the Huai River, have an absolute destitute population of 150,000 and he estimates that to feed them—at $1.00 per individual per month—will require $900,000.00.

Mr. W. E. Souter, on his recent journey to Peking, saw something of the devasted region. The once fertile regions around Pengpu have been simply converted into an immense inland-lake, and according to reliable report of the foreign officials of the railway line, some 3,000 square miles are under water, with about six million people affected. Some little relief is being undertaken by the Nanking people with funds raised locally but this is far from adequate to cope with the situation. It is apparent that if no substantial help is given to these sufferers, the death roll during the coming winter will be appalling. The Government is too deeply engaged in other questions and apparently indifferent to the sufferings of the people. The surtax-funds on telegraphs, railways and likin raised on account of last famine are said all to have been used up, and no relief can likely be expected from this quarter. Many of the once rich farmers have contributed towards the relief of famine last year, and when their turn of need comes, they will also expect outside help.

Many prominent Chinese merchants in Shanghai, realising the sericusness of the situation, have one after another started relief societies. The sudden springing up of so many ill organised societies is bound to cause overlapping in the work of relief, and possibly a good portion of the really destitute may be left out in the cold.

In order to prevent such possibilities, and seeing the splendid work done by the Chinese-Foreign Famine Relief Committee last year, these various organisations have come to an understanding and are willing to join together and form one Central Committee, with all funds to be distributed by an International Distribution Board to be responsible for the proper spending of all monies received.

This new provisional International Committee will issue invitations in the near future to the Chinese and foreign officials, merchants and gentry of the town, appealing for their support and cooperation in organising an efficient Committee to undertake this work.

FILIPINOS TOLD THEY MUST WAIT; NO FREEDOM NOW

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Manila, Oct. 8.—The Wood-Forbes report definitely lays the question of Philippine independence "on the table" for the next four years, declared acting Governor Charles E. Yeater last night at a farewell banquet given to him by prominent Filipinos and Americans.

Nevertheless, America is still bound by the preamble of the Jones law to grant independence as soon as possible Governor Yeater continued, and that promise will be lived up to by the country.

"Before General Wood and Mr. Forbes left Manila for China and Japan, they made a preliminary report which, while by no means as comprehensive as the final report still gave an accurate and complete view of their conclusions," Said Governor Yeater "That preliminary report I saw It was shown to me, but as the Secretary of War has said that it would not for the present be made public I do not feel at liberty to say much about it.

INDEPENDENCE IS TABLED

"I may say this, however, without violating confidence. The report is filled with calm, fair honest and judicious statements It is couched, where criticism is necessary, in the kindliest terms but it evades nothing. I agree with what is said in it, it is a document saturated with painstaking and conscientious effort and one which all thoughtful Americans and Filipinos will approve.

"It definitely tables the Independence question so long as Mr. Harding is President."

Governor Yeater is to sail for Seattle on the Silver State on October 18. Many demonstrations of regard and effection were shown to him before his departure by both Filipinos and Americans. His task both during the administration of Mr. Harrison and since has been regarded as a difficult one.

Although it was felt that he was not personally in sympathy with the more extreme measures of the Harrison regime, he nevertheless won the respect of all parties here while acting as Governor during Mr. Harrison's absences from the Islands.

WON HIGH PRAISE

Since the arrival of the Wood Forbes mission, he has acted as Governor and has co-operated with the mission in a way which won high praise from General Wood. His Principal duties have been to investigate and punish offenders whose misdeeds were brought to light by the mission A large number of Filipinos have been removed from office as a result, and several Americans principally in the Bureau of Education, have likewise been discharged or disciplined.

Governor Yeater has not announced what his plans are after returning to the United States further than that he will probably resume the practice of law.

Issue Instructions To Creditors Of The Banque Industrielle

Method For Filing Claims Is Announced Here

Instructions to creditors with regard to the procedure to be followed in the transactional settlement have been issued by the Banque Industrielle de Chine, which calls upon all to remit their statements with dispatch in order to hurry the settlement.

The instructions, which will be found in another column, state that the Consul for France is to issue notifications to each creditor asking the remittance to the Consular office of a statement of claim in detail, together with documents justifying the claims. Those not possessing documents must submit statements of account certifying the standing of their accounts on July 26, 1921. The Consul will return to creditors all deeds and values after countersigning the statements of claim—which must be in his hands by November 15—and these statements will then be forwarded to the Tribunal of Commerce of the Seine district at Paris.

When the statements from the various branches are all in, the Banque will deposit its proposals for a transactional settlement and then creditors will be called upon to notify their acceptance or refusal.

Household Quarrel Leads To Suicide By Poisoning Of Boy Emperor's Mother

An element of mystery is attached to the reasons for the quarrel between the members of the Imperial Household as a result of which Princess Chun, the mother of the Boy Emperor, took her own life by opium poisoning on October 1, comments the Peking Leader. Thus far two reasons for the general quarrel have been given, but which was the real cause—if either is—will probably be locked in the breasts of those who do know it for some time to come.

That the argument was a vehement one is unquestioned. Prince Chun, father of the Emperor, fainted before it was over; Princess Chin, Empress Dowager who was at one time No. 2 concubine to Emperor Kuanghsu, is still confined to her bed, and, so it is reported, in a serious condition: the Boy Emperor has gone into mourning for the death of his mother. It was not possible to ascertain whether the Empress Dowager's illness is likewise due to an over-dose of opium or whether it was caused by the nervous shock attendant on the tragic outcome of the Imperial discord.

TWO REASONS GIVEN

The two reasons advanced for the quarrel are these, given in the order of the importance attached to them: (1) that it arose through a dispute between the Empress Dowager, the Princess Chun and the Emperor over the selection of a bride for the latter. (2) that it came about because of a dispute between the Emperor and the Empress Dowager over the dismissal of one of the Imperial Court physicians.

Regarding the first, it is declared the Empress Dowager was strongly in favor of a matrimonial alliance between the young Emperor and a daughter of President Hsu Shih-chang. The Princess Chun, the Emperor's mother, was against this selection and favored the daughter of Yang Liang, her nephew. The Emperor preferred a much younger sister of his mother, but, failing that, was inclined to accept his mother's choice. The Empress Dowager is said to have notified the Emperor that his marriage was a question for the Imperial Court that outsiders had no right to interfere, and that he must abide by the decision of this court. This led to bitter words between her and the young gentleman. The Prince and Princess Chun were called in to mediate, but the latter took her son's side, with the result that during the three days she remained in the Palace she and the Empress Dowager were constantly at odds. Princess Chun finally took to her bed—this was on or about September 28—and her death followed.

QUESTION OF AUTHORITY

The other version of the cause of the quarrel is roughly as follows: On her last birthday, one of the eunuch Court Physicians neglected to make the customary kow tow to the Empress Dowager. She became highly indignant at this slight, and ordered him from the Palace grounds. A few days later the Emperor, with whom this eunuch had been a favorite, asked as to his whereabouts, and was told of the Dowager's action. He immediately ordered that the physician should return, which order was complied with.

The first time after this that the Emperor came to pay his usual morning and evening respects to the Empress Dowager she, according to the report, informed him that it was obvious he no longer had any respect for her, since he had given orders flatly contradicting her own, and that therefore it was worse than useless for him to continue to go through the forms of paying respects to her. For a number of days the Emperor omitted the customary ceremony, and the tension in the Household became steadily greater.

The Emperor's father and mother then came in, seeking to make peace by asking the Dowager to forgive the Emperor for his action, on the ground that he was still very young (he is sixteen). The Dowager scolded these two for permitting their son to be so disrespectful, and in the course of the quarrel which ensued the Emperor's father fainted and was carried from the room. Immediately after the close of the audience the Princess Chun committed suicide by taking opium.

The Boy Emperor, it is stated has for some time been seeking a way to assert his authority against the old Empress Dowager. After this quarrel he is reported to have instituted inquiries as to whether there was not some way whereby the Dowager could be dismissed from the Palace. The young man is now in seclusion at his father's home, and is in mourning for his mother. He is accompanied only by Prince Tsao Tao and Imperial Tutors Chen Pao-shen and I Ko-tan.

WOULD SEE THE WORLD

The report of an attempt to bring about a marriage has been current in Peking for many months. The Empress Dowager is said to have favored an early alliance while the young man, himself, took the stand that he should be given an opportunity of travelling and seeing the world first. In this, President Hsu concurred and because the Imperial Household is short of money, owing to the Government failing to pay the allowances due promptly, is said to have offered to advance the funds for a trip around the world.

It may not be generally known that the Boy Emperor some months ago is said to have made a special trip to Shanghai where, incognito, he is reported to have taken a special language course from a professor at St. John's Cathedral school. The professor, himself, is authority for the statement and displays, at times, a handsome jewel which he claims was given to him by the young man, who but for the revolution, might be Emperor of China today.

Martial Law In Shantung Suppresses Free Speech

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct. 16.—Neither the student movement nor the influence of the Chinese merchants in Shantung, can be taken very seriously, in the study of Chinese politics. The declaration of martial law in August 1919 has acted a dampener on the students, and the merchants are afraid of the soldiers, or else they are afraid of injuring their Japanese connections in the Province by starting any anti-Japanese propaganda.

The correspondent writes:

"The student movement in Shantung, or at least in the neighborhood of Tsinan, has very largely collapsed. The drastic measures taken by General Ma Liang and his Frontier Defense forces, following the declaration of martial law in Tsinan in August, 1919, at the time of the great anti-Japanese agitation in Shantung, were effective in suppressing the student movement as an important factor in political affairs in the Province.

PROTEST IS SQUELCHED

"The student organisation still exists, and is frequently heard from, supporting this or that popular movement, but martial law still exists, largely in name it is true, and serves effectively to prevent any leader of force reviving the student movement as a commanding factor. It is to be remarked in this connection that Tsinan lacks, in its student organisation, any considerable membership of students of higher educational attainments. While the few returned Western students in Tsinan are sympathetic to the movement in most cases, they are not prominent in it and in many cases not even allied with the organisation.

"The merchant and banking classes, on which some dependence is apparently put by students of Chinese politics, for measures which may eventually save the country from the doom toward which it is now so rapidly traveling, do not, in Shantung Province, hold themselves in an organisation which does or could exert any commanding influence upon the provincial administration.

COMMERCIAL BODY SILENT

"The Chamber of Commerce of Tsinan is a body of considerable membership, and indeed its name and the names of its officers are frequently seen on numerous telegrams and petitions in support of popular movements, but the Chamber as a whole is without interest or influence in political affairs. This situation is accounted for in two ways: (1) the fact that a considerable number of the influential and more wealthy members have Japanese business affiliations (open or covert) and are not disposed to expose their own personal interests to popular agitation, and (2) Fear of the soldiery, the existence of martial law, and the horrible example made of their class in the shooting of several merchants by General Ma Liang during his campaign of suppression of anti-Japanese agitation.

"Other organisations in Shantung appear from time to time as associated with popular movements—the Educational Society, the Agricultural Society, the Society for Foreign Affairs, etc., but none of these organisations have any particular standing, influence or force and are not factors of importance in consideration of political affairs."

STILL WAIT ANSWER

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, October 15.—Official instructions to the Japanese Legation with regard to the Tokio Foreign Office's policy towards the Chinese Shantung memorandum of October 5 were not forthcoming today.

Tokio press reports, however, which apparently emanate from authoritative sources, indicate that Japan is likely to request the Chinese Government to reconsider its reply.

These reports are taken here as meaning that the Tokio Government is likely to support Minister Obata in his refusal to receive the Chinese memorandum officially, but to merely take it and look it over unofficially.

On the other hand Minister Obata communicated the memorandum of October 5 to his Government in full the same day on which he received it. Whether this was done officially or unofficially is not, however, stated.

CALLS CHINA BRUSQUE

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 17.—The Manchester Guardian in a leading article on Shantung expresses the opinion that the Chinese Government might have adopted a somewhat less compromising attitude towards the Japanese invitation to enter into direct negotiations.

It says that Japan has already gone some way to show her readiness to compromise and the brusqueness of the Chinese note gives her an opportunity for the soft answer, which the Great Powers too often think it beneath their dignity to practise, and she would strengthen her own position if she proceeded now to consider how she can best meet the rooted Chinese objection to surrending part of the control of the Shantung Railway.

TEA CAUCUS PLANNED

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 15.—Lou En-ko, Vice-Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Secretary of the House, Lu Ching-erh, have invited the members of the third Parliament, numbering 61, to take tea with them in the Zoological Garden on Wednesday next and talk over the political situation.

China Plans To Cut Army To Total Of 800,000 Men

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct. 16.—At the Washington Conference representatives of China will be able to say that their country is already taking steps toward the reduction of land forces. Lieutenant General King Shao-tseng, Vice-Minister of War, recently made an official statement to this effect and added that in his opinion the total land force of the Republic should be reduced to about 800,000 officers and men.

Within the past year according to General King some 80,000 troops have been demobilised. Approximately 1,500,000 Chinese are now under arms although inaccurate reports made an exact calculation of the number of these men impossible, and to reduce this force to the 800,000 desired by the Vice-Minister of War is a tremendous task.

General King explained the situation by pointing out that Chinese troops are partly under the control of the Peking government and partly controlled by the eighteen tuchuns and three special commanders. Due to provincial disputes between those warlords the armies under their control have been heavily recruited and consequently before reduction can become an actual fact the complete unification of China and cessation of inter-provincial strife is absolutely essential.

COST IS PROBLEM

Another problem involved in this question of reduction of land forces is the tremendous expense incidental to any such measures General King has not been willing to make any estimate of the total cost of demobilisation but said that as the government would be forced to either find employment for the discharged men or to grant them substantial bonuses, the expense would reach very large figures. Nothing has been done as yet toward meeting such demands upon the treasury but it is possible that a foreign loan might be sought for such a purpose.

Although General King and the Peking government have declared themselves in favor of this disarmament the attitude of the tuchuns is not known. Their support is expected on the ground of the decreased expense involved in the upkeep of half of the military forces which are now being supported, but at the same time it is well known that certain of the warlords find the support of troops very much to their financial advantage.

At any rate the movement cannot make any very substantial advance until the unity of China is an accomplished fact and the financial affairs of the Republic have taken something of a new lease on life.

An appreciative doctor wrote:—

"Lady——was placed under my care for the voyage Home. I could not accept any responsibility as I considered she was in great danger from haemorrhage should she vomit. She had always been a very bad sailor. As a precaution she was given two capsules, of 'KIRBY'S SEA-SICK CURE' immediately she went on board. We got into rough water shortly before midnight, but Lady——had an undisturbed night's rest. She took one capsule half-an-hour before dressing. She had breakfast in the dining hall, and assured me she had no sensation of nausea or sickness. Although we had rough weather for five days, and at other periods of the voyage, she was not sea-sick. There was no nausea of any kind, and the remedy produced no after-effects."

AMERICAN SCHOOL BOYS HOPE TO BENEFIT MUCH IN ATHLETICS BY BIG DRIVE

Track And Athletic Field Included In The Campaign Are Of Vital Importance To Young Sportsmen; Great Physical Good Will Result

The success of the campaign for funds now under way however means efficient athletics at the school and the realisation of Tls. 150,000 this week will make possible an athletic field which will include sections for baseball, football, soccer football, basketball, group games and girls sports.

Because the American school has no field at present athletic work is badly handicapped although the institution is rich in athletic material and fortunate in coaches. Now the boys must use the Hongkew Recreation Park and for baseball this is none too good because the space is very much in demand, particularly by Japanese teams.

One of Principal W. W. Bartlett's hobbies is athletics. He was a crack cross country man when in college and he plays basketball. Bartlett last Fall developed a nice hill and dale squad and ran with the boys every Saturday. He also helped mould the basketball team.

Coach Van Hook is working with the various teams this year and reports that he has several likely looking lads.

But the boys are sadly handicaped and one of the big arguments for the new plant in the French Concession is the possibility of an athletic field and gymnasium which could be used by both girl and boy students. The girls have a pretty fair basketball team at the school now.

A gymnasium, and an athletic field with a cinder track will mean much to the American children here.

Geisha Girls To Play At Baseball

Kobe, Oct. 14.—In Himeji, says the Yushin Nippo, the baseball fever has become so ardent that the tea-house beauties have been attending all the games, and have become such connoisseurs that they are forming a team.

They have named it the "S" Club. O-yuki is the captain. They will wear a uniform with a checker-board pattern, and will, it is said, shortly begin practice.

This is probably the first geisha team in Japan.

The geisha were always experts at flirting with a fan.

Hutchison Tells Of Thrill At Winning By The Last Putt

BY JOCK HUTCHISON

I can only recall a few big championships that provided half the thrill that the recent British Open at St. Andrews did. Possibly it was the fact that I was one of the principal characters in this championship that made it seem so spectacular to me.

But whether I had figured in it or not, any tournament or championship that comes down to the last putt, and where one of the contestants must equal the record of the course to tie, is bound to be interesting. I know of no greater thrill in golf than this.

Our own Open last year was spectacular and the finish very close, as any one of six or seven players had a chance to tie or win on the last green, but record golf was not involved. I happened to be in this fight and had a twenty-foot putt left for a tie with big Ted Ray, but I couldn't get the putt down. I was not deserving of it, I suppose, as I had thrown away some very good chances on the earlier holes.

It was remarkable golf that Francis Ouimet played at Boston when he tied with Ray and Vardon in 1913 and then beat them in the play-off. In order to tie Francis had to shoot golf on the last nine holes that left him no margin for the slightest mistake.

BRAE BURN A HARD COURSE

At Brae Burn, in 1919, Water Hagen had to cover the last nine holes in par figures to tie Mike Brady, and his golf was on the spectacular order from the ninth to the eighteenth. As I remember it, Walter had one stroke to spare, and he wasted this on the twelfth hole, when he put the ball out of bounds. The Brae Burn course is one of the hardest tests of golf in the country. The slightest mistake brings its penalty.

I remember this finish well, as I served the "whipper in" for Hagen. I did not have much of a chance to win myself, but by a good round I could better my position and get a bigger slice of the prize money. It was thus that I served as a peace-maker.

Should I live a hundred years, I will never forget my fourth and last round at St. Andrews that gave me the British championship. When I started off I was not sure just what had to be done, as I had no way of knowing on the first holes, who I would have to beat or what figures I would have to make.

I told my caddie, Jack Melville, who was an old school mate of mine, that it would probably have to be a 70 and that I proposed to go for everything. He agreed that this was the proper plan of action.

Well, Jack and I got the 70. I had not figured that Roger Wethered would be the one with whom I would have to fight it out. At the fifth hole I met

Recs Football Men Will Meet Today

The Shanghai Recreation Club will hold its annual football meeting this afternoon. The Recs are planning on a big year with teams as usual in both the first and second leagues.

The meeting is called for 6 o'clock. Football supporters of the Recs are confident that with the new blood available this year they will put two full elevens in the field. It is hoped, nevertheless that the older members will come forward with their advice to encourage the youngsters and help the club to football success for 1921.

The meeting this evening will outline the program and plans of play, and will see the election of officers for the new year.

Recs To Award Tennis Prizes

At the conclusion of the football meeting of the Recs this evening at 6 p.m., prizes for the club's season of tennis will be awarded, for the singles, the doubles, and the club's championship

KNOWLAN WILL CARRY ON AS AMERICAN FOOTBALL M'GR IN SPITE OF STATES LEAVE

Will Control Destinies Fall Sport Until Impending Annual Meeting Selects New Manager; First Practices Set For Saturday And Sunday

Johnny Knowlan, notwithstanding his departure soon for the States on a vacation, is carrying on as manager of the Shanghai American football team. He promises to have the uniforms of the club out of storage within the next day or so, ready for the first practice of the American game on Saturday.

The prospects now are for a workout Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and again on Sunday. Later practices will be called for during the week, perhaps on the field, and perhaps on the floor of the S. V. C. Drill Hall on Foochow road, in the evening. Announcement will be made on this point later.

It is hoped that by a week from Saturday the most promising of the Shanghai team may get into a game with the well-trained team of the American School, which has been working out all through the early fall under the direction of Coach Van Hook and is even now competent to give the huskies of the Shanghai team a game for its life.

Manager Knowlan's departure for the States this autumn upsets the football dope for the season. It was hoped that Knowlan would be on hand to carry the elevens through. With Cy Wilhoit and other promising and enthusiastic men at hand however the season is bound to go good.

The departure of Knowlan will require at the impending annual meeting of the club an election of a newer man for the post of Manager. It was understood until yesterday that Knowlan would continue but his vacation changes the face of things. Nominations at the meeting, which will be held within the week, will be considered. It would be well for football men to consider the vacancy carefully, for a good football man is essential to success.

Tommy Kerrigan, and he told me he was out in 33. He had a big lead on me at that time and I only hoped to keep close to him and finish second.

EXCITEMENT GOOD TONIC

At the thirteenth hole I heard that Wethered was in with a total of 296. Those who have played the old St. Andrews links must know it is no cinch to come home on the last five holes in even fours. I marvel now that I could do it. It must have been the tremendous excitement that kept me going.

There were about seventeen thousand people scattered over the course. Hearing about my chances, they began to swarm around. It looked to me like a whole army when I teed up for the seventeenth, the famous road hole that has blasted the hopes of many a near-champion. That great big crowd seemed to be pulling for me and I tell you it was encouragement that I needed, for the old heart was thumping like a kettle drum and the front of my shirt was jumping with every beat.

Well, away went my drive on a true line. I knew I could reach the long, narrow green in two, but I dared not take a chance at this close stage. The green was like lightning, baked like cement, making it impossible to stop a long shot with any accuracy. Besides, a five and a four would give me a tie. I took my mid-iron and played to the edge of the green. Chipped up about three yards away and just missed holing a 4, but got a par 5.

ONLY ONE MORE TO PLAY

Just one more left to play, thank the Lord. Down the alley went the drive away over the road to the left in a level spot for my second. I couldn't have placed the ball better with my hand. I took a midiron and mashed her up four or five yards from the pin, and you'll never know the relief I felt when I found how close it was. I knew now that I had a tie at the very worst.

Tommy Kerrigan came along and says, "Jock, keep her dead, there's no one now who can beat you, and you will win in the play-off sure." I tapped her up and just missed a three, but left myself a downhill putt of about a foot and a half, and I can tell you, it didn't look any too good right then. My heart was pounding like a runaway engine and I thought of a thousand things that could happen. But I realised that if I took too long, I would sure miss the little devil. So I went up and tapped her and in she rolled.

I can't begin to tell you how I felt when I saw that she was down. And I don't know now I could go out and equal the course record in the last round of a championship, when I had to do it to tie the leader, who was already in.

Racers Race In Front Of Collectors Of Austrian Taxes

A racing stud in flight before the tax commissioners is the newest sensation in Continental sports circles, says the Daily Chronicle.

The Vienna tax authorities levied on the well-known Hungarian racing stud at Poeloeske, for horses run in Austrian meetings, the enormous income tax of 400,000,000 kronen for the current year (nominally about £16,000,000, but at present worth perhaps only about £125,000).

As the tax commissioners prepared secretly to seize the valuable horses of the stud nominated for the Austrian races as tax security, the owners of the stud were informed of the plan and they saved the horses by rushing them at midnight in huge motor-lorries over the Hungarian border.

The tax commissioners raced after them, but the horses proved winners in the race to the Hungarian borderpost.

DEMPSEY AND WILLARD ARE SIGNED AGAIN

Fight Will Take Place Either In New York Of Jersey City Next Spring

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Arrangements have been completed for a match between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard either in New York or Jersey City next spring. Jack Kearns said today that "Tex" Rickard had informed him that he had held Willard against his contract. Kearns had accounted for Dempsey.

Jess Williard, former heavyweight champion, started training in anticipation of the Dempsey fight two months ago. At that time he weighed 265 lbs, but he hoped to train down to 238, the weight at which he lost the title to Dempsey.

"I am doing about three miles road work daily, and besides this some gym work. I have been doing a lot of outdoor work on the farm this summer and am in pretty good shape right now," said the ex-champion. "I am training off about a pound a day. Rickard knows that I am in pretty fair condition right now, and that I can be fully prepared for a fight."

Schurman Tells Views on American Trade in China

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct. 15.—Mr. Jacob Gould Schurman, American Minister to China, in speaking before the Tientsin Chamber of Commerce today noon, emphasised two points—the part played in China by American business men and the attitude of the United States in the coming conference at Washington. In regard to the latter he contradicted the reports that it would result in an "agreement for depredation, and asserted his confident belief that the most important result of the conference would be the renewed definition and application of the principles of China political and territorial integrity and of the "Open Door" policy.

Opening his talk with a review of the improving business conditions of the United States and the economical program of the new administration, he went on to describe new American interests in China brought out particularly at this time by the dedication of the new buildings of the Peking Union Medical College. The visit of the American Educational Commission, the visit of General Wood and ex-Governor Forbes, and the presence of the flag of the Pacific fleet in North China are further evidence of this increasing interest in Chinese affairs on the part of the United States.

TENFOLD INCREASE

Mr. Schurman next spoke of the American business man in China pointing out that since 1900 customs returns show a tenfold increase of Chinese-American trade.

"The American merchant in China," said the Minister, "aids the Chinese in finding markets abroad for their products and encourages them to acquire a knowledge of modern commercial and industrial organisations. Of course he gladly supplies them with the machinery, equipment, and other commodities which they must secure from foreign countries.

WANTS FREE COMPETITION

"In his relations both with the Chinese merchant and other foreign merchants the American business man constantly finds himself confronted with problems affecting the rights and privileges to which he is entitled as a citizen of a most favored nation. He asks no special favors but he demands the right to free competition in what should be an open market.

"Our government recognises the duty of protecting the American business man in the maintenance of his rights and just interests in China."

Mr. Schurman stressed the necessity of co-operation between these business men in advancing American interests in general, and more particularly the need for still further co-operation between American and Chinese. The substantial developments in Chinese-American enterprises and increasing number of these joint concerns showed, as he pointed out, a very hopeful sign. After commenting on the difficulties attendant upon such organisations he added that in his opinion, "the pioneers who are now successfully working out this idea of co-operation are conferring a signal service on Chinese-American trade and Chinese-American relations generally."

Taking as his final topic the question of the relations between China and the United States with special reference to the Washington Conference, the minister stated very forcibly that it was his personal belief that the result of the deliberations in America would be renewed insistence upon political and terriorial integrity for China and equal opportunity to the trade and commerce all nations. Referring to a recent newspaper statement to the effect that agreements for further depredations would be arrived at, he said, "I venture to assert that such a prediction is contradicted by everything we know about the history and purpose of the conference. I cannot conceive of any description containing more misrepresentation."

VOLUNTARY MEETING

The object of the conference he defined as "a voluntary meeting of equal sovereign states" joining "in a free and frank discussion with a view to reaching a mutually satisfactory solution of the problem which confronts them all. The great aim is to prevent the clash of conflicting interests in the Orient, and with this removal of the cause of armament to bring about a general and permanent limitation of armament."

The speaker then went on to show that strong and efficient government in China being the key to the whole situation, the Powers should lend to the Chinese people any help that they desire in the establishment of such a government, for it is by strengthening China that peace in the Orient will be secured. He assured his audience that "the government of the United States will never be a party to a game in China—or indeed in any other part of the world."

In concluding this address Mr. Schurman said: "what the conscience of the world is today proclaiming to the governments of the nations is this command: seek peace and ensue it. The first condition for ensuing peace in the Orient is respect for the inviolability of Chinese sovereignty—political, territorial, administrative and economical—and benevolent assistance to the Chinese people with a view to unifying, strengthening, and improving the government of their Republic. It is the honor of America to be a leader in this high and momentous undertaking."

OBREGON WANTS VOICE; WILL ASK FOR RECOGNITION

(U.S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Mexico City, Oct. 17.—President Obregon, in a conference with American correspondents today, made an important declaration, saying that Mexico would have a representative at the Armament Conference and would question his recognition by the United States.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Oct. 10.—"The proposed armament limitation is certainly desirable, and Japan will not hesitate in the least in employing her best possible efforts for its realisation," remarked Lieut. General Yamanashi, Minister of War, in the course of an interview by the Osaka Shimpo. The Minister continued:

"But the fact should not be lost sight of, that Japan stands on quite a different footing from that of the European Powers. The latter had been obliged to extend their respective scale of armaments during the late Great War, and naturally now require its retrenchment. But the Japanese participation in the hostilities necessitated no expansion of her armament equipments.

"Some of the Japanese advocates of armament limitation hold that because the United States intends to decrease her land troops to 170,000, therefore Japan ought to follow her example. This is quite an absurd theory, utterly ignoring the above special circumstances in which Japan finds herself. Japan should keep the above fundamental difference of standpoint in view when she participates in the discussion of armament limitation."

PREMIER'S STAY BRIEF

(Reuter's Service)

London, Oct. 17.—In the event of Mr. Lloyd George going to Washington he and Mr. Balfour will sail on the Aquitania whose departure from Southampton will be accelerated by a couple of days, namely to November 3, in order to enable them to reach Washington on November 11.

The Prime Minister's visit, which is still dependent on domestic affairs, will in any case be brief. When he returns to England Mr. Balfour will remain as head of the mission. Sir Auckland Geddes will be appointed the third delegate. The remaining delegate, Lord Lee, will sail on board the Olympic with three officials of the Foreign Office on October 26.

SMUTS NOT COMING

London, Oct. 18.—The newspapers assert that the British Empire Delegation to the Washington Conference will consist of Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Balfour, and Lord Lee, representing Great Britain, Sir Robert Borden, representing Canada, Senator Pearce, representing Australia, Sir John Salmond, representing New Zealand, and Mr. Sastri, representing India. General Smuts also received a pressing invitation but will not be able to leave South Africa, which will thus not be represented.

CHINESE ARRIVE

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct 14.—China's first group of delegates to the Washington Conference, headed by Dr. P. K. C. Tyau, the Chief Secretary of the Delegation, arrived in Washington early this week, according to a cablegram received by the Foreign Office. The advance members of the delegation have already begun to prepare for the Conference, so that when the balance of the delegation reaches Washington the final work of planning China's case can be begun without further delay.

When Inga posed for the artist lover, all the world looked on in smiles. When she posed for her benefactor —Ah! that was another matter. See

WIRTH CABINET IS TOTTERING; END NEAR FOR SOME

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Oct. 17.—The Temps considers that the situation of the Wirth Cabinet is uncertain. It is not yet known in German political circles whether the Cabinet will retire in a body but it is already certain that several members will have to resign, including Herr Schmidt, the Minister of Public Economy, and Dr. Gradnauer, Minister of the Interior.

The retirement of Dr. Rosen, Minister of Foreign Affairs, is also thought probable. On the other hand all parties are united in the desire that Dr. Rathenau, the Minister of Reconstruction, should remain in power.

The Socialist parties continue to maintain that the Wirth Cabinet should not resign and that, with the aid of the Independent and Majority Socialists, supported by a large number of the members of the Center and the Democrats, it would be able to secure a vote of confidence.

NOTICE

Transactional Settlement Of The Banque Industrielle De Chine

In accordance with the provision of the Law of the 2nd. July 1919, re the Transactional Settlement, and in the strict interest of the creditors, the Judge-delegate of the Tribunal of Commerce of the Seine district for the Banque Industrielle de Chine has issued on the proposal of the Judicial Administrator an ordinance prescribing the proceedings to follow for the exhibition, affirmation and the verification of the claims against the said Bank in China.

The Consul for France holding office in places where the Banque Industrielle de Chine has branches shall address to each creditor a registered letter inviting him to remit to the Consular-Office a statement presenting in detail his claims fixed per 26th July 1921, certified true and genuine.

This statement must be accompanied by documents justifying such claims as: statements of accounts, passbooks, drafts, cheques letters of credit, telegraphic remittances, orders of payment, deposit receipts of any kind, paying-in-receipts, credit advices, etc.

Creditors who do not possess these documents must submit in their stead statement of account with the Bank, certifying the true standing of their account on the 26th July 1921.

On receipt of all the documents above mentioned, deposited with him before the 15th. November 1921, the Consul shall return to creditors all deeds and values, after having countersigned all claim-statements signed by them. These claim statements will be remitted to the Tribunal of Commerce of the Seine-district at Paris.

For the exhibition and affirmation of their claims, creditors may appoint a proxy, holding a non-legalised power of attorney, a model of which will be sent to them by the Consul.

After receipt of and examination by the Judicial Administrator of all the Statements of the Head-Office and the different branches of the Banque Industrielle de Chine, the proceedings for the registration of claims are definitely ended and the Banque Industrielle de Chine, has to deposit with the Registrar's Office of the Tribunal of Commerce of the Seine-district its proposals for a Transactional Settlement, accompanied by the report of the Judicial Administrator on the proceedings taken.

These proposals of the Transactional Settlement will afterwards lead to proceedings similar to those adopted for the exhibition and affirmation of claims and creditors will be called upon to give their adhesion or to notify their refusal of acceptance of these proposals. After which these proposals will be submitted to the home legation of the Tribunal of Commerce of the Seine.

In order to hurry the Settlement, it is in the interest of creditors to reply urgently to the information required by the Consul for France. Moreover, as per the conditions of the Law of the 2nd. July 1919, creditors who have not replied within the delay stipulated are considered to accept as genuine and correct the statements of account of the Bank and are registered under this heading in the transactional settlement, but having no right of vote as to the final proposal.

On the other hand debtors of the Banque Industrielle de Chine have to settle their accounts likewise before the 15th November 1921, through the intermedium of the Manager of the Branch interested or through the Correspondent of the Judicial Administrator, or through the Chancellor of the French Consulate.

A. DU PAC DE MARSOULIES
Correspondent of the Judical Administrator.

Ready For Show Down

WARRIORS of old were adept in the gentle science of displaying bristling armaments to impress their opponents. When summoned to a parley they would parade before each other in shining mail and jingling spurs, making many playful demonstrations of their skill with the sword or the more deadly mace. That such display was effective was shown by the warriors agreeing to postpone their fight to another day.

The same bit of side play is now going on as a preliminary to the Washington conference. Alarmists need not put extra wings to their imagination because Britain announces the sending of a great fleet to the Far East with a base at Singapore. Such a measure will be taken only if disarmament fails as an idea. Japan argues special insular conditions as a reason for continuing her Eight-Eight program. America is marshalling all her fleet on the Pacific, and intends to enlarge the naval bases at Mare Island and Bremerton.

All of which means the powers are padding their hands before the show-down. To have ships on the sea, or merely on the program, adds to the bargaining value of the talk by any country's delegates. The people of each nation are heartily sick of heavy taxation, but would not for the world have their government forego the display which makes for argument at the conference table.

* * *

PREMIER Hughes of Australia recently issued one of his spectacular statements to the effect that America had "slammed the door" on the dominions. His dramatic announcement caused amazement in both London and Washington where it was known that no correspondence had taken place in the matter. Selection of the British delegation was a matter purely of British concern, and treated as such. Unofficial intimations did emanate from Washington, all expressing a hope that the dominions would come to the conference. It is now seen that the decision reached at the Imperial Conference has been reversed, and that Mr. G. F. Pearce will represent Australia. Premier Meighen of Canada will be there, Judge J. W. Salmond of New Zealand, and possibly General Smuts of South Africa. Premier Hughes made a conspicuous figure at the Paris conference because he allowed his personal antipathy to President Wilson to color his public statements. His reasons for the "slammed door" speech cannot be imagined, but they are certain to be peculiar.

PREMIER George has found attendance at the conference compatible with his heavy responsibilities at home. The news is greeted with enthusiasm throughout America. There are British statesmen not so luminous, Mr. Balfour for instance, who could conduct Britain's affairs as well as he. But none other has his power of mediation. Even if he merely attends the opening sessions his presence will be a symbol of Britain's recognition of the importance of the conference.

Mongols Split on Question of Rule by Chinese

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, Oct. 13.—Outer Mongolia is divided into two political camps.

At present the power lies in the hands of the so-called "Red" Mongols who, influenced by the presence of the Soviet army, which is in actual if not de jure control of Urga, are rallying to the slogan "Mongolia for the Mongols." This party desires neither Chinese nor other foreign intervention in the affairs of its country.

It would welcome the opening of trade with China and the rest of the outside world, but opposes any political relations with China other than those of one sovereign state to another

The second party, composed of the older princes who used to govern the country in the days when the Tripartite Agreement was in force and who are now living in political retirement, hopes for the restoration of the terms of the Tripartite Agreement as far as Outer Mongolia and China are concerned. The older princes wish, in other words, once again to become an autonomous state under Chinese suzerainty, with a Chinese President and a small Chinese military guard stationed at Urga.

WANT CONSULS TO COME

At the same time the majority of the leaders of this second and more conservative party are said on the best authority to favor the opening of foreign consulates in Urga and the formation of an international guard representative of the nations having consulates there. The opening of foreign consulates, they claim, would lend dignity and prestige to an autonomous Outer Mongolia, while the presence of foreign consular guards would guarantee the safety of foreign lives and property and thus serve as a stimulus to foreign trade and investment.

The princes' party is at present in political eclipse but it is possible, if not probable, that they will return to power within the next few months, as the hold of the "Red" Mongols depends to a large degree upon the presence in Urge of Bolshevik troops. The Bolsheviks are, however, poorly equipped for a winter in Urga, and it is predicted that climatic and commissariat conditions will cause them to withdraw into their own territory before winter.

Law and order prevail in Urga. The Soviet troops, while extremely youthful, badly armed and inadequately clothed—they wear everything from the garb of a Chinese coolie to the trousers of a Japanese gendarme, supplemented by a British tunic and an American pack—are quiet and orderly and disposed to leave the conduct of government affairs to the Mongols.

KALMUCK IN CHARGE

Command of the Mongol forces in Urga is, however, in the hands of a Kalmuck officer recommended to the present Mongolian Government by the Bolsheviks. This officer acts in the capacity of a provostmarshal, policing the city with Mongol troops and exercising passport control and supervision over the movements of Russians and other foreigners who are not permitted to travel from one place to another in the country without first notifying him or his agents.

Bolshevik forces in Urga, to the number of 2,000 rank and file, are quartered mainly on the Chinese, each Chinese family or shop having from 3 to 4 of these guests. They are doing next to no business owing to the complete standstill in trade that has existed ever since Baron Ungern captured Urga last February, and this enforced hospitality is a real hardship to them.

FINANCES AT EBB

Government finances in Outer Mongolia are reduced to a low ebb owing to lack of trade between the country and the outside world; and Butchin, the Bolshevik advisor to the Ministry of Finance at Urga complains that he is anxious to assist in developing industry but can procure no funds for work of this, or any other kind. Arrangements have, it is however stated, been made with the Moscow Government for a silver loan and 20 poods of silver are reported to have reached the Mongolian treasury from Irkutsk early this month.

Butchin plans, furthermore, to open a Mongolian co-operative store in Urga along the lines of co-operative stores in Soviet Russia. This store will, according to Butchin, sell everything from a candle to a timber concession, and practically all of Outer Mongolia's business will pass through its hands if Butchin's plans go into effect. On the other hand the Chinese and many of the Mongols see the necessity for the immediate resumption of foreign trade along previously existing lines of competitive rather than co-operative effort. Gasoline sells at $90 per case at Urga today; sugar at $2 per pound; coffee at $3 per pound. Many of the other necessities, let alone luxuries, of life are not to be had. Something must be done to relieve this situation now, according to Urga merchants; otherwise a large percentage of the population will starve or freeze to death this Winter.

The Marconi wireless station just outside of Urga has been repaired by the Bolsheviks and is now able to receive and send messages whenever there is any gasoline for the engines. The recent activities of the station have been confined mainly to receiving messages owing to scarcity of gasoline.

Along the line between Urga and Erhlien, a telegraph station 70 miles south of Udde, the telegraph lines are in bad shape. The Mongols have cut down many of the poles for fuel, and there is a stretch of 300 miles of telegraph line to the North of Erhlien that requires thorough repairing. The Chinese have done some work on the telegraph line just to the North of Erhlien, where they have erected a new station, but the Mongols have done no repair work in the territory controlled by them.

Chinese troops on the Mongolian plateau are conspicuous by their absence, according to the best information. There are apparently no organised Chinese forces north of Pangkiang, while at that place, which has been the headquarters of the Chinese expeditionary force for several months, the army is now reduced to at most two regiments.

MISUSE OF FLAG SCORED

(China Press Correspondence)

Hankow, October 14.—The alleged misuse of the French flag by Chinese steamers plying between Ichang and Chungking has of late caused a good deal of misunderstanding at Ichang, where Wu Pei-fu for several times seized Chinese steamers flying French flags, is the remark of Mr. Chen Chieh, Commissioner of Foreign Affairs of Hankow, who has just returned from Ichang. In an interview with your correspondent, he stated that the misuse of the French tri-color is so extensive at Ichang that even Chinese owned residences and shops, at Ichang are hoisting the French flag over their frontages for protection.

Commissioner Chen said that General Wu Pei-fu, who is now living on board the gunboat Chutseng lying at anchor amidst the foreign shipping of Ichang, is much displeased with the Chinese ship companies flying French flags as a means of baffling Chinese authorities in transporting Szechuen troops during their recent invasion of Hupeh.

According to Mr. Chen, quite a number of foreign residents of Ichang are dissatisfied with the abuse of foreign flags, as it leads to the possibility of all foreign steamers and merchants being looked upon by the Chinese with suspicion and distrust.

While at Ichang, Mr. Chen was called upon by Wu Pei-fu to settle some of the outstanding cases of French vessels that were seized by Wu because they transported troops and ammunitions for the Szechuen troops. Of the fifteen steamers now on service between Ichang and Chungking, about half are flying French flags, while others are either British or American owned.

The first French vessel that got into trouble with Wu Pei-fu, who arrived at Ichang on September 15, was the Hsuhung which Wu Pei-fu found to have transported Szechuen troops from Chungking to Ichang. The French Consul at Chungking was at once communicated with by Wu, but owing to the breakdown on the telegraph line, this was for a time impossible, and therefore Wu Pei-fu only held up the vessel pending further investigation. Some later negotiations, however, failed to bring a settlement.

Another case was that of the Hsinshutung, which was found to be guilty of transporting Szechuen troops. In this case, the French Consul was prompt in acting through the Commissioner of Customs at Ichang, taking away from the French-flagged boat the right of flying the French colors for a period of three months. This was communicated to the Chinese superintendent of Customs at Ichang, who in turn informed Wu Pei-fu of the action taken by the French authorities.

It was found later that the company was not guilty the real culprit being the manager of the Chinese-French company who secretly arranged for transportation with the Szechuen troops. Upon representations being made to the French and Chinese authorities, the punishment was waived, and besides Wu Pei-fu chartered this vessel for transporting his own men to the upper gorges at the rate of $2,800 per sailing day and half that sum for each day of anchorage.

Ichang is now quiet, and fighting in the neighborhood has ceased entirely. The Chinese city was deplorably devastated, and Wu Pei-fu is thinking of some reconstruction plan to enlarge the old city of Ichang by building a new wall to take in a larger area.

Fighting Recedes From Ichang —Steamers Still Held

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Ichang, Oct. 13.—Happily the inhabitants of this town are no longer sitting doing nothing, while waiting for the outcome of military measures. The fighting has gone further from Ichang each day, and now we are informed that the northern troops arrived at Patung yesterday. Reufer's correspondent has been informed that there was fighting at five different places on the way up river, and that three columns of northern troops are converging on Patung.

If the Szechuenese should make a last stand there, then there may be another fight: if they continue to retreat, it is possible that the northerners will proceed to a small place about 10 miles beyond that, and as this is practically on the borders of the two Provinces they will not proceed beyond that, unless the Szechuenese refuse to make terms.

Meantime this campaign is costing a lot of money, and the question is who is to meet the expenditure. It is known that General Wu Pei-fu has made the local Chamber of Commerce responsible for finding sufficient rice and flour to feed his men: whether he will pay them for it is another matter. He has also approached them for a loan of $50,000, (in spite of the fact that the town was looted twice, and no business has been done since the second looting)!

NO MONEY IN TOWN

They have replied that there is not that amount of money to be had in the town, and they have made an offer to pay him from some funds they have lying at Hankow. These funds are the sum of 500 tiao which was paid to the merchants to recoup them after their losses in the last looting. It was too ridiculously small to do anything of the kind, and now the indemnity paid by Wang Chan-yuan is being lent (?) to Gen. Wu Pei-fu for military purposes!

The Hsin Shutong has been taken over by General Wu Pei-fu for military purposes, as she was alleged to have carried troops for the Szechuenese: however he has agreed to pay the sum of $2,400 per day as charter money. She is being used to carry supplies to the northern army at such points as they may have reached. The ship must be a great convenience to the General and will save long porterage and be much quicker than the native boats.

Nearly the whole of the fleet of the Szechuen merchant steamers is tied up in harbor here, as it has apparently been decided that the risks of the trip are far too great. It is now known that a boycott has been proclaimed by a Society calling itself the "The Society for Assisting Democratic Diplomacy of Chungking, China."

BOYCOTT IS URGED

Reuter's correspondent has had the opportunity of seeing and translating one of the pamphlets issued by the Society, and a copy of the translation is herewith sent. It is interesting as it shows the nature of the propaganda which is being circulated, and the harm that may be done thereby to foreign interests in the west.

The soldiers have either taken up the cause of the Society, or they themselves may be members of it, and hence the repeated firing on all steamers that try to make the trip to Chungking. It really looks as if there may not be any communication with Szechuen this year, as native craft are not allowed to travel either.

The Hungkiang which flies the French flag was a steamer that managed to get through about a fortnight ago. She returned from Chungking on Sunday evening, and when the ship was examined 174 packages—mostly kerosene oil boxes—were found in the cargo space, for which there were no documents. Some of the Customs officers consider that they risked their lives watching the stuff all that night, and Mr. Hawkins, assistant in charge, went to the ship himself to make the seizure secure. It took the best of two days to get the stuff counted and weighed, when it was found that there was just a little over six tons of Yunnan opium in the boxes.

The price is variously estimated, but here it is considered to be worth a sum approaching half a million dollars, while in Shanghai that price might be doubled. General Wu was appealed to for a guard, and he lent very willing assistance to insure that there should be no raid on the Customs House in an attempt to loot the stuff.

WU HELPS BURN IT

It has all been taken out and burned today, when 18 big fires were kindled for its consumption, and General Wu himself lit the first fire. He was followed by some of his generals, and it will take the whole day to get the stuff consumed.

It is said that the ship is to be heavily fined, and meantime she will not be allowed to leave the harbor. It was not transpired to whom the opium belongs, but it is suspected that there is an opium gang trying to run the stuff: it is whispered that it was put on board at Fowchow some distance below Chungking.

It is a memorable seizure, and probably the largest that has even taken place here or elsewhere in China.

The day in Commemoration of the Revolution was observed on 10th, in brilliant sunshine, when General Wu Pei-fu invited most of the foreign residents to meet him at the office of the Superintendent for Foreign Affairs. It was a brilliant assemblage, and congratulatory speeches were made in honor of the event. General Wu hoped that the bright and brilliant day was indicative of the brilliant future that lay before this country.

The members of the British Community are entertaining him today at a garden party at the British Consulate.

Farewell Dinner Given to Rev. A. Sowerby

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Oct. 15.—A farewell dinner was given to the Rev. A. Sowerby, by the Board of Directors of the International Anti-Opium Association at the Grand Hotel de Peking last evening.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Norris, president of the association, who was in the chair, spoke in very high terms of the unfailing energy, tact and inspiring influence of Mr. Sowerby during the three years that he had been general secretary of the association.

The success of the Association had been largely due to their guest, upon whose shoulders the bulk of the work done by the association had fallen.

The chairman then dealt with the progress of the association since its inception, of the difficulties that beset the anti-opium cause and the wide range of work undertaken by the association. In wishing Mr. Sowerby a pleasant holiday in the homeland the members trusted that he would return to Peking at the end of his furlough and resume his former labors.

The association had been very fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Aspland as General Secretary during Mr. Sowerby's absence. Dr. Aspland was an enthusiast in the anti-opium cause and would, the speaker felt sure, enable the association to carry on its good work efficiently in the future.

Speeches were also made by Mr. Kung Jah King and Messrs. Ridge, Sowerby and Wearne and Dr. Aspland. Mr. Kung dwelt upon the necessity for Chinese to cease creating the demand for drugs in China, without which there would not be the great opportunities for the sale of drug poisons, produced in China and smuggled from abroad, which now existed. The remedy really lay with the Chinese people themselves.

Mr. Ridge, in a very happy way, coupled the name of Mrs. Sowerby with that of their guest in the good wishes of the association. Mr. Sowerby dealt eloquently with the anti-opium work and the necessity for continued labors towards ultimate suppression of a traffic which threatened to demoralise many countries.

Dr. Aspland, the general secretary, showed a wide grasp of his subject in referring to the drug evil in China and a sympathy with the cause which were received with the keenest interest.

There were present the Rt. Rev. Bishop Norris, the President Mr. A. E. Wearne, Vice-President, the Revs. A. Sowerby, Dr. Lowry, G. Candlin and Liu Fang, Dr. Ni Wenteh, Mr. Kung Pah King, Mr. L. C. Chang, Drs. Maxwell, Cormack, and Aspland, and Messrs. Watanabe, W. S. Strong, Treasurer, A. Ramsay, Recording Secretary, J. L. Davis, D. W. Edwards, Grover Clark, W. Sheldon Ridge, and J. B. Taylor.

On Making Sure

There is nothing like making sure where one's health is concerned. Good health is the best guarantee that Life shall be a success. Now it is well-known that digestive disorders are the cause of more cases of ill-health than any other class of ailment. The digestive system is so extensive, so complex and so hard-worked, that its liability to derangement is not astonishing. Happily, however, many digestive ailments can be easily remedied. Happily, too, many digestions need never go wrong. You can make reasonably sure that your digestion will not fail you, even under trying conditions, if you get into the excellent way of taking Beecham's Pills. This "Wonderful Medicine"—as it has been called—does really work wonders with the digestive system. Beecham's Pills impart tone to the stomach, regulate the action of the liver and kidneys and gently stimulate the bowels into healthy activity. Get into the habit of making sure. Have recourse to Beecham's Pills at the first sign of digestive trouble. Make sure of your health by taking

Beecham's Pills.

The Shanghai Young Women's Christian Association is entering upon its fifth season at the rooms on 11A Quinsan Road. The finance campaign which is now mid-way to its goal is one of the means of bringing information of the work which the Association is doing, before the city. A second rally meeting of the team leaders was held late this afternoon at which reports of the progress of the campaign were made.

The beginning of Association activities after the summer's program points to an enlargement in every department. The hostel which under normal circumstances accommodates 30 had 60 girls crowded into it during the rush season this summer. It is most evident in all departments of the work that before long the local Association shall have out-grown its present locality.

The fall program of study classes in the Association is attracting many new students this year. These classes are conducted by volunteer teachers and members of the staff and comprise instruction in English, French, mathematics, Chinese, and many other subjects desired by girls who could not go on with a regular education. The students themselves realise the valuable opportunity they have in these classes to come in contact with the members of the foreign community, for British, French and American women have volunteered their services to teach the various courses.

HALF DAY CLASSES

There are half day classes for young women whose family cares or health make longer study hours impossible, and in like measure there are specially arranged classes for young married women who cannot attend full time courses.

There are also girls studying at the Association in preparation for examinations or to make up work lost through illness. The staff of trained secretaries are being constantly called upon to assist in various ways in fitting girls and young women for particular positions.

The board includes: Mrs. T. H. Lee, president, Miss W. T. Zung, vice-president, Mrs. K. H. Chen secretary, Mrs. W. Y. Sung, treasurer, Mrs. S. K. Tsao, Mrs. L. Chang, Mrs. S. C. Lin, Mrs. D. W. Tsang, Mrs. K. T. Nieh, Miss M. L. Soong, Miss M. L. Su, Miss N. F. Woo, Mrs. P. K. Kwok, Miss E. T. Tsang, Miss Lucy Sung, and Mrs. S. M. Woo.

Those on the local staff are: Miss Mary Ting, Miss Jane Shaw Ward, Miss Wei Tsung-be, Mrs. P. S. Yie, Miss Edith O. Sawyer, Miss E. G. Johnston, Mrs. L. S. Woo, Miss Dzing Man-yuin, Miss Tong E. Ling, Mrs. S. L. Wong, Miss Martha Job, Miss Tsang Tshan-bing, and Miss Yoen Pau-tau.

The social service department of the Association is one of the most important which has been developed under the guidance of Miss Sawyer and Miss Johnston.

It was this department which conducted the very constructive "Better Homes" campaign last year. Physical education is another important feature of the work, and gradually the Chinese girls who are interested in this department are becoming more athletic and skillful in group recreation.

Exchange Fluctuations
Asia Banking Corporation

October 18, 1921.
Spot bar silver was unchanged and forward down ¼d. in London yesterday.
The New York price advanced to 73⅝ cents and the London-New York cross rate improved to 393½.
The official Sterling rate today was at the opening dropped to 4/1, the Gold Dollar rate to 80½ and the Yen rate raised to 60⅛.
The market, however, at the opening was on the easy side with banks not anxious sellers and the official quotations were, therefore dropped to 4/– for Sterling, 78¾ for Gold Dollars and 61½ for Yen.
After the change in rates the market steadied up and at the tiffin interval there were good sellers of Sterling at 4/0½ for October delivery and at 3/11½ for December with Gold Dollar sellers at 79½ for October and 78 for December.
China is reported to have again bought silver in London yesterday for near delivery and speculators to have sold for forward.
It is quite likely that as a result of our weak market here today the London price of silver will react somewhat during the next day or two.

Obituary

MR. HARRY McADAM
A military funeral service will be held tomorrow for the late Mr. Harry McAdam, of the Shanghai Municipal Electricity Department, who died at the Victoria Nursing Home Monday morning.
Mr. McAdam, who was only 34 years of age, left Shanghai early in 1915 to join the 189th battery of the Royal Field Artillery and made a fine record for himself in the fighting on the Western front. He was finally severely wounded, suffering injuries which cost him the use of his right eye and ear, but on being invalided joined up with the Labor Corps. He returned to Shanghai in February, 1919, and rejoined the Electricity Department, which he had first entered in 1911.
Mr. McAdam is survived by a brother, Captain McAdam of the China Navigation Company steamer Shengking.
The cortege, consisting of gun-carriage and firing party from the Field Artillery Battery, S. V. C., in which the deceased was formerly a sergeant, will leave the Fearon Road mortuary at 3:15 p.m. tomorrow. The cortege will be joined by the Municipal Band at the corner of Carter and Bubbling Well Roads and the services at the Bubbling Well Cemetery are to start at 4:45 p.m. It is hoped that many ex-service men as possible will attend, in uniform if possible.
